INDIANA LAW ANNOTATED

Vol.3, No. 9

Oct. 19, 1992

JOINT SPEA-LAW RECEPTION WEDNESDAY

There will be a joint SPEA-LAW informational period and reception Wednesday, October 21, 1992. From 4:30-5:00 in the Moot Court Room, there will be an informational time introducing students to joint degree programs, JDMPA (Master of Public Affairs and JD/MSES (Master of Science of Environmental Science), and courses offered by SPEA. This period will be followed by a reception from 5:00-6:00 on the Law School south patio.

This is an excellent opportunity to meet SPEA faculty and joint degree students. Both should be superb sources of information on what SPEA courses would be most useful to a law student.

INTERNATIONAL VISITORS OFFER COURSES NEXT SEMESTER

Two international visitors will enrich the international offerings at the law school next semester. Professor Emilia Kandeve-Spirodonova will teach a course in "Law in the Changing Society." Professor Kandeve holds the post of deputy minister in the government of the Republic of Bulgaria working within the Office of the Prime Minister as Director of the Center for Administration. She was formerly with the Institute of Law in the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. She has a long and distinguished career as a professor of law, with particular interest in comparative and administrative law. She played a significant part in the transformation of Bulgaria from a totalitarian state to a multi-party democracy. A fluent English speaker, she has been visiting at SPEA this year.

Her course at the law school will explore the new legislation in Eastern European countries and its role in the processes of dramatic political, economic, and social changes there. It will focus on three areas: environmental protection law, economic law (i.e., commercial law, business and foreign investments, privatization efforts), and administrative law. A complete course description is available in Dean Fromm's office.

In addition, Professor Kandeve will offer a course at SPEA on Comparative Local Government. Dean Fromm's office also has a course description.

Professor Fernando Teson will be visiting from Arizona State University and teaching International Business Transactions and a seminar in International Jurisprudence. After a period of law practice in Buenos Aires, Professor Teson served as a diplomat for Argentina and participated in the Falklands negotiations. He is the author of two books, HUMANITARIAN INTERVENTION and THE PHILOSOPHY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, and numerous articles, on international law.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY

Professor Schornhorst Takes on Eighth Circuit

On October 12, Professor Tom Schornhorst appeared in St. Paul, Minn., before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit along with former colleague Richard Lazarus (now at Washington Univ. School of Law) for oral argument in United States v. Dale Ryan. The case involves questions concerning the interpretation of the federal arson statute (18 U.S.C. 844(i)) in cases of resulting deaths of firefighters, and a constitutional challenge to the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines which purport to equate the offense with first degree murder without proof of homicidal mens rea. Chief Judge Richard Arnold (brother of our former dean and colleague Morris "Buzz" Arnold who is also on the Eighth Circuit) chaired the panel.

Professor Dau-Schmidt Presenting Paper

On December 3, 1992 Professor Dau-Schmidt will present his paper "A Bargaining Analysis of American Labor Law" at the Vanderbilt Law School.

NEWS FROM STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

WOMEN'S LAW CAUCUS:

BROWN BAG LUNCH - All students and faculty are invited to an informal discussion with women lawyers about working in law today - including legal issues facing women in general, and workplace issues such as the "token woman," "glass ceilings," "mommy tracks," partnership, child care, sexual harassment. . . etc. Panelists include Judge Nicki Mann, Bloomington City Attorney Linda Runkle, and IU's own professors, Aviva Orenstein, Alysa Rollock and Cathy Crosson. Drinks provided. Bring your own lunch and questions to Room 124 at Noon, on October 21, 1992.

GENERAL MEETING - We will discuss the weeks events and plans for more activism. Anyone interested is encouraged to attend. Check Calendar for further details.

VIDEO OF "THE BECKY BELL STORY" - Aired on October 13. Anyone planning to attend the speech Thursday night is encouraged to see the video when it is shown again. Check Calendar for further details.

TALK BY BELL PARENTS

Concerned about Parental Consent Laws and the Gag Rule? Come hear Karen and William Bell address these and other issues. Karen and William Bell are the parents of Becky Bell, an Indianapolis teenager, who died three years ago as the result of an illegal abortion. The Bells will present a twenty-five minute video on Parent Consent Laws, and a one-hour speech and discussion period will follow. All are welcome to attend. Thursday, October 22nd at 7:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW SOCIETY:

GRAB YOUR PARTNER AND COME TO THE BARN DANCE - Keep the evening of Friday, November 6th open for the annual ELS BARN DANCE. Join us in an evening of fun, good food & drink, square dance calling and maybe a fireside storyteller. This event is open to all Law Students. More information will follow. Don't miss it.

JOIN THE CAMPAIGN FOR INCUMBENT JIM JONTZ - Representative Jontz, is a Democratic US Congressperson for the central region of Indiana, and a strong supporter for the conservation of the US National Forest System. If re-elected, he will likely serve as Chair of the House Sub-Committee regarding National Forests. The timber industry and other interest groups are pumping tremendous amounts of resources into the race in order to defeat his bid for re-election. ELS is organizing a trip to the Kokomo area to solicit support for Representative Jontz and we could use your support by signing the interest sheet located on the ELS Bulletin Board located in the Cafeteria or call Jeff Goldenberg at 336-1449.

SUPPORT NEEDED IN OPPOSITION TO LAND SALE FOR HAZARDOUS WASTE FACILITY - Anyone interested in opposing the sale of IU Foundation land in Noxubee County for establishment of a hazardous waste facility should read and sign the letter located on the ELS Bulletin Board.

THE GAY, LESBIAN, AND BISEXUAL LAW CAUCUS

The members of GLBLC would like to confirm that they have absolutely no involvement with the production or distribution of "Hints for Homosexuals." Thank you to all who offered their support both before and after its appearance, and particularly to Women's Law Caucus for their rapid mobilization and show of tolerance for diversity. Keep an eye out for our next Bake Sale!

MBA STUDENTS CHALLENGE THE LAW SCHOOL

For those who always thought MBA students were dorky book worms (they admit maybe they are), the MBA's are challenging the law school to a 5K Fun Run at the IU Cross-Country Course on Oct. 24. Runners and non-runners are needed. Come to win or just to run. We can't let them beat us or we'll never hear the end of it! So help us meet the challenge - open to men, women and at least one professor. See Knight Anderson (3L) if you are interested or need more information.
